

Make your (book)mark

Create your own bookmark inspired by the amazing collections at the State Library.

Bookmark one (front)

Bookmark two (front)

Bookmark three (front)

State Library
South Australia

This bookmark was created by

Based on artwork by artist
George French Angas (1822-1886)
from South Australia illustrated.

Angas painted some of the earliest pictures of South Australia in 1844.
The State Library Collection has 60 colour illustrations.

Discover more about the collection
and other fun activities you can
do at the State Library:

Bookmark one (back)

This bookmark was created by

Based on artwork by South
Australian artist Rosa Catherine
Fiveash (1854-1938).

The State Library Collection
includes over 130 original signed
watercolours by Rosa Fiveash
donated to the Library in 1937.

Discover more about the collection
and other fun activities you can
do at the State Library:

Bookmark two (back)

This bookmark was created by

Based on artwork by South
Australian artist Rosa Catherine
Fiveash (1854-1938).

The State Library Collection
includes over 130 original signed
watercolours by Rosa Fiveash
donated to the Library in 1937.

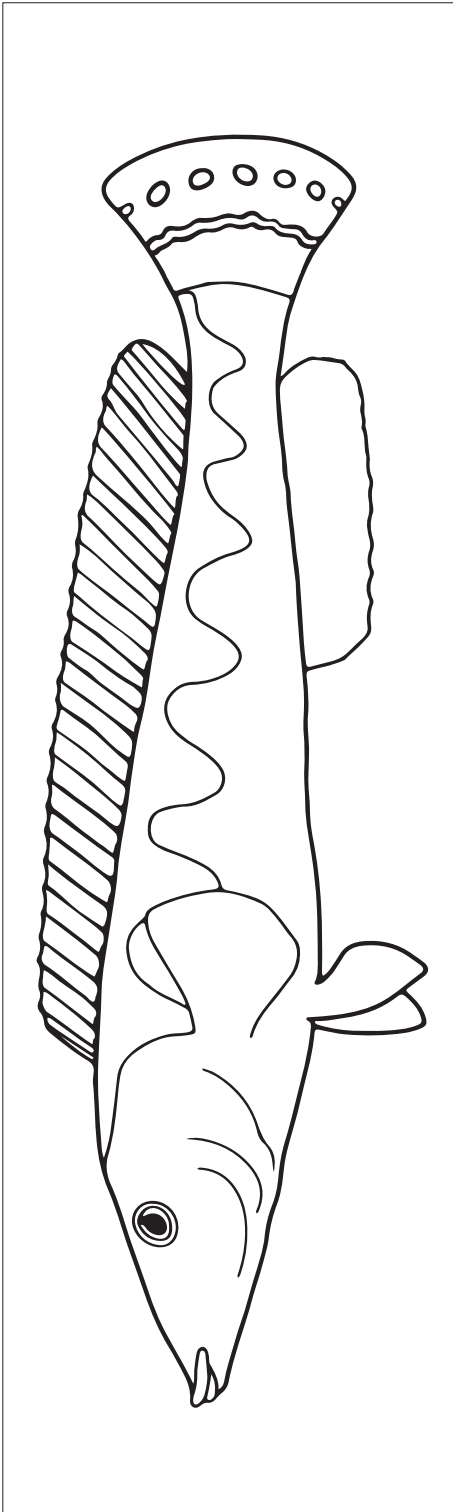

Discover more about the collection
and other fun activities you can
do at the State Library:

Bookmark three (back)

Make your (book)mark

Create your own bookmark inspired by the amazing collections at the State Library.

Bookmark four (front)

Bookmark five (front)

Bookmark six (front)

This bookmark was created by

Based on artwork by artist James Barker Emery of fish from Australian waters. Emery joined Charles Darwin on the voyage of the HMS Beagle.

The State Library holds many of Emery's sketches.

Discover more about the collection and other fun activities you can do at the State Library:

Bookmark four (back)

This bookmark was created by

Based on artwork by Mabel Boothby, 'An Australian eleven' is one of 14 watercolours of South Australian scenes.

Local artists painted them for the Duke and Duchess of York's children for their visit on July 11, 1901.

Discover more about the collection and other fun activities you can do at the State Library:

Bookmark five (back)

This bookmark was created by

Discover the collection and other fun activities you can do at the State Library:

Bookmark six (back)